

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Name: William M. Kier
- Address: Institute for Fisheries Resources
P.O. Box 29196
San Francisco, CA 94129-0196
- Position: Senior science advisor, Institute for Fisheries Resources
Principal, Kier Associates, Fisheries and Watershed Professionals
- Education: B.S. - Biological sciences
Sacramento State University, Sacramento – 1957
- Employment:
- 1958-1967: Fisheries scientist; fisheries program manager; chief, Water projects Branch, California Dept of Fish and Game, Sacramento.
- 1967-1983: Principal committee consultant, California State Senate committees on Fish and Game, Natural Resources, and Water Resources; Director and principal environmental policy specialist, Senate Office of Research and Policy Development, Sacramento
- 1983-present: Principal, Kier Associates, Fisheries and Watershed Professionals; Sausalito, Arcata and Blue Lake, CA
- Responsibilities:
- (1) Former member, board of directors, now senior science advisor to the 501c(3) public service research organization, the Institute for Fisheries Resources
 - (2) Project administration/senior editor of scientific reports for State and federal agency clients, Tribes and others concerning the protection and restoration of Pacific salmon resources in the San Francisco Bay-Delta watershed, the Klamath River basin and elsewhere in northern California and the Pacific Northwest; Kier Associates, Fisheries and Watershed Professionals
- Professional organizations:
- American Fisheries Society, Certified Fisheries Scientist
Member, American Institute of Fishery Research Biologists